

RELEASED AT €420 EX-NÉGOCIANT

Haut-Brion 2016: Quality score vs ex-négociant price per bottle (€)

Haut-Brion has released in a single tranche at a 9% increase on 2015 (€420 vs €385). Quality scores are almost identical (very high in both cases), and this is likely to go down well in the market.

“The 2016 Haut-Brion is shaping up to be one of the jewels of the vintage. Towering, powerful and intense, [...] the 2016 is quite rich, but never heavy. It is especially polished, even understated Haut-Brion built more on finesse than power.”

“Surprising intensity of the texture, vividness, unmatched depth and complexity, its strength reminds us of the 1989 but in a stricter form. Very promising future.”
