Ducru-Beaucaillou 2016: Quality score vs price per bottle (£)

The 2016 is released below current market prices for the 2010 (just) and the 2009 (significantly), with a Quality score just above both vintages (964 vs 961), so looks acceptable. NB. volumes are down significantly.

“Perfect aroma of cedarwood, racy texture of a premier cru, precise finish, one of the peaks of the Medoc vintage.”

“Very dark. Racy and sinewy with lots of richness and energy. Smooth and supple and quite sweet – arguably too sweet? – but with masses of tannins buried down there [...]”
