Lafon-Rochet 2016: Quality score vs price per bottle (£)

Lafon Rochet 2016 is priced higher than all recent vintages currently in the market apart from 2005, but with the highest Quality score since 1990, the wine is well placed to capitalise on its increased confidence amongst the trade, despite volume being down 20%.

“ The 2016 Lafon-Rochet is a worthy follow-up to the 2015, although it is much less obvious than that wine [...] Deep and concentrated but not big or overdone, it is likely to require at least a handful of years to be at its best [...] ”

“ Strong colour, intense, very deep, tannin still a little too thick, long, complex, great drinking window surely. ”

“ Not the deepest crimson. Broad and rich and a bit beefy and yeast-extract-like. A tad scrawny on the end. ”

Lafon Rochet's confidence rating among Wine Lister's Founding Members went up from 5/10 in 2015 to 7/10 in 2016, marking an upswing in the brand's reputation.
