Léoville Poyferré 2016: Quality score vs ex-négociant price per bottle

Given this is Léoville Poyferré’s highest Quality score ever (one point above the 2010), the 2016 release price well below market price for the 2009 and 2010 seems altogether reasonable.

“Very big volume in the mouth, intense colour, a monumental Poyferré. [...]”

“Deep purple. Very deep. Really rich and winning. Much more mouth-filling than the other wines from this stable. Really fresh but broad and ripe. Great freshness. Long and beautifully balanced.”

“A huge, soaring wine, the 2016 Léoville-Poyferré is powerful, vivid and captivating. [...] Arguably the most tannic and brooding of the wines of the appellation.”
