

Wine Lister's ground-breaking system consists of three main rating categories: Quality, Brand, and Economics. Each category contains several criteria, carefully selected and weighted, resulting in a holistic assessment of a fine wine's performance – overall and for each vintage. “The 2014 La Joie exudes freshness, energy and intensity. [...] Raspberry jam, wild flowers, mint and gently spiced notes are laced into the super-expressive, silky finish. A final kick of Cabernet Sauvignon intensity adds lift in the 2014 La Joie [...]”

Vérité La Joie has the highest Quality score of any Sonoma County wine for the 2014 vintage.

AGEING POTENTIAL (YEARS)

Vérité La Joie
Quality score vs average market price

2014 achieves La Joie's highest ever Quality score. Its release price puts it above the current market value of every recent vintage. The similarly rated 2009 appears good value.
