

Wine Lister's ground-breaking system consists of three main rating categories: Quality, Brand, and Economics. Each category contains several criteria, carefully selected and weighted, resulting in a holistic assessment of a fine wine's performance – overall and for each vintage. 948 Economics (overall)

Across all vintages Vega-Sicilia Unico has the highest Wine Lister Economics score of any Spanish wine thanks to good long-term price performance and excellent liquidity.

908 bottles of the top 5 vintages traded at auction over the past four quarters – nearly three times as many bottles as Spain's second-most traded wine (Vega-Sicilia's second wine, Valbuena).
