

630 /1000 est.

RELEASED AT £27.01 UK RRP ( -4% vs 2016)
/ €26.40 EX-NÉGOCIANT ( -8% vs 2016)

Marquis d'Alesme 2017: Quality score vs average market price (£)

The ambitious, young, all-female team at Marquis d'Alesme have made another very good wine in 2017, not too far behind the 2016 in terms of quality. While the gesture is the right one - the ex-négociant price is down on last year - the wine still comes out more expensive than most recent vintages on the market.

92-94
Neal Martin
(Vinous)

828 2017 Quality

5 /10

“It has a very pure bouquet with black cherries, blueberry and violet aromas that are detailed and pure. [...] This is quite a sophisticated Margaux.”

16.5
Julia
Harding
(JR.com)

“Very pure and lifted. [...] Straightforward and correct with fragrance the key.”

The trade’s confidence in Marquis d'Alesme has gained one point over the past year, now at 5/10 in Wine Lister’s latest Founding Members’ survey.