Pape Clément 2017: Quality score vs average market price (£)

A small discount to the 2016 release price is enough to put Pape Clément Rouge below current market prices for the 2015 and 2016. It's a fine line, but with volumes released down a whopping 60% on last year, there could well be enough demand to justify this price.

7 /10

868 2017 Quality

“Intense black cherry, raspberry, fig and sous-bois scents on the nose [...] leading to a structured and fresh finish that leaves a spicy aftertaste.”

In keeping with last year's results, Pape Clément Rouge has been attributed a solid confidence rating of 7/10 by Wine Lister's Founding Members.

“Beautiful velvety texture, normal at the château, with delicious smoky notes already present. A charming Pape.”
