Ducru-Beaucaillou 2017: Quality score vs average market price (£)

Ducru-Beaucaillou's ambitious release price puts the 2017 into the market below the 2016, but above the higher-scoring 2015, 2014, and 2012, which all look attractive by comparison.

Antonio Galloni (Vinous)

921 2017 Quality

“Super-refined dark fruit on the nose, ripe but not overly. Just a touch – and nicely – smoky.”

17.5

Julia Harding (JR.com)

“It is probably going to require more cellar age than many of its peers but it will be worth the wait.”
