

936 /1000 est.

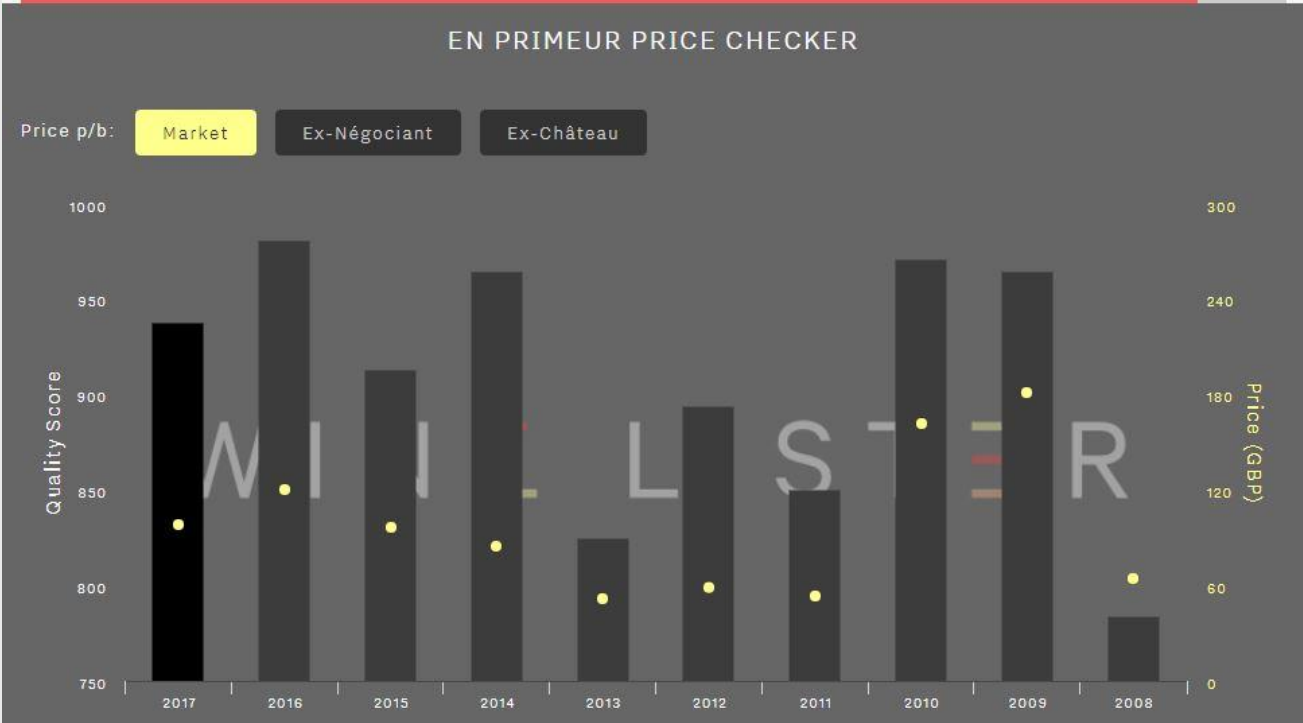

RELEASED AT £98.50 UK RRP (-2% vs 2016)
/ €96.00 EX-NÉGOCIANT (-6% vs 2016)

Montrose 2017: Quality score vs average market price (£)

Montrose 2017 enters the market 18% below the current value of the 2016 and just above the lower-rated 2015. However the 2014 looks more inviting, achieving a better Quality score than the 2017 and currently available at a 14% discount.

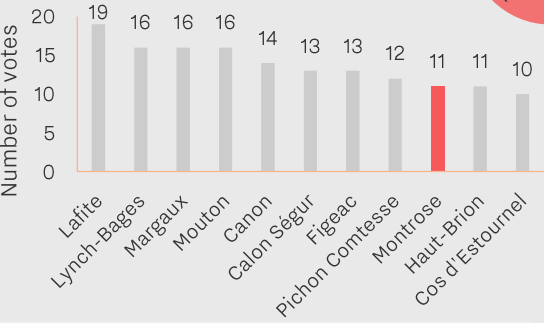

Château Montrose Deuxième Cru

936 EP 2017

Visit the Montrose 2017 page to access the interactive chart.

938 2017 Quality

The 9th most successful wine of 2016 en primeur according to Wine Lister's Founding Members.

17.5
Julia
Harding
(JR.com)

“Elegant and attractive dusty character, incredibly fine tannins, so supple, refined, juicy and long.”

“Wonderfully polished and nuanced. [...] superb harmony from start to finish. All the elements fall into place effortlessly.”

92-95
Antonio
Galloni
(Vinous)

The trade's confidence in Montrose has risen over the past year from 7/10 to 8/10 according to Wine Lister's Founding Members survey